Membership Process

1. Applicants shall be sponsored by a member of the Association in good standing.
2. Application submissions require a non-refundable deposit of 1/6th the amount of annual senior membership dues. Checks can be made payable to NVRRA.
3. The Applicant agrees to serve a trial period which will consist of:
  - a. 6 in person visits to the Association's quarters within a period not exceeding 4 months.
  - b. Attendance at a minimum of 1 business meeting, remotely or in person. Attending the meeting at which the candidate will be considered for membership will satisfy this requirement.

Exception: Prior members who resigned in good standing may be exempted by the Board of Directors from serving an additional trial period.
4. Pending applications will be kept in an accessible location within the Association's quarters for easy access to record attendance.
5. Upon successful completion of the trial period, the application will be brought before the general membership to be voted on pursuant to the Association's by-laws.
6. All senior members in good standing with at least 6 months of active service shall have unlimited access to the Association quarters and facilities. Senior members with fewer than 6 months of service shall have access to the quarters and facilities only during scheduled meetings or in the presence of a senior member who has unlimited rights and privileges.
